

АНГЛІЙСЬКА МОВА

Методичні вказівки і комп'ютерні тести
для самостійної роботи студентів II курсу
Аерокосмічного інституту

Укладачі: АКМАЛДІНОВА Олександр Миколаївна
КРАВЧУК Оксана Юрївна
МАКСИМОВИЧ Тетяна Олександрівна
ШУЛЬГА Тетяна Валеріївна
ШВЕД Оксана Петрівна

Технічний редактор A. I. Лаврінювич

Підп. до друку 03.03.04. Формат 60x84/16. Папір офс.
Офс. друк. Ум. друк.арк. 3,02. Обл.-вид. арк. 3,25.
Тираж 200 пр. Замовлення № 64-1. Вид № 73/III.

Видавництво НАУ.

03058. Київ-58, проспект Космонавта Комарова, 1.

Свідчення про внесення до Державного реєстру ДК № 977 від 05.07.2002

8. What is to happen to stage 2 aircraft if they are not modified to meet much stricter noise requirements?
 - a) they are to be banned in Europe
 - b) they are to be used only in domestic flights
 - c) they are to be phased out of service
 - d) they are to be used rarely
 9. Why must the mankind treat environment seriously?
 - a) not to have so much garbage
 - b) not to be afraid of pollution
 - c) to be happy
 - d) to survive
- Exercise 10. Identify the following sentences as true or false:
1. Environmental problems people face globally are too serious and complex to be concerned about.
 2. Environmental impact assessments are used in decision – mankind by national authorities and international bodies.
 3. Aircraft emissions were recognized as a problem in 1980s.
 4. In 1980s interest in the acid rain and ozone depletion decreased.
 5. Aviation industry hasn't yet worked out its own regulatory standards for noise and pollution.
 6. ICAO intends to reduce its certification standard for emissions by 20%.
 7. After all the legislations have been introduced noise is a minor pollutant.
 8. Pollution knows no boundaries if it is airborne.
 9. Pollution is a course of health hazard for entire population of the world.
 10. Boeing and Rolls Royce considerably lowered noise levels.